Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments and amendments, filed 6/30/2003, have been fully considered and reviewed by the examiner. In light of the amendments, the objections to the claims have been withdrawn. The examiner acknowledges the cancellation of Claims 2, 9, 13, and 17. Claims 1, 3-8, 10-12, and 14-16 are pending.

The applicant has argued that the Sakai reference does not teach the forming the claimed antioxidant film. The examiner respectfully disagrees. Sakai teaches providing a synthetic resin base, coating the base with a basecoating and drying, plating the basecoat with silver by a silver mirror reaction, washing the silver to remove undesired particles, treating the silver to form a polyester polyol coating, and then forming a topcoat on the coated silver, as set forth in the previous office action. The treatment step in Sakai for forming the polyester polyol coating of Sakai reads on the claimed antioxidant formation step, since polyester polyol is oxidation resistant and would be expected to behave as such in Sakai. The applicant has provided no evidence to the contrary and thus the examiner is maintaining his position on this issue.

The applicant has argued that the references do not teach removing the impurities with acetic acid. This argument is moot in light of the new grounds of rejection which follows.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 1762

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 5, 8, and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Sakai.

Sakai is applied here for the same reasons as given above and in paragraph 8 of the previous office action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 1, 3, 6-7, 12, and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sakai in view of Chan and Burnett.

Sakai and Chan are applied here for the same reasons as given above and in paragraph 10 of the previous office action. Sakai and Chan do not teach that the acid is acetic. Burnett teaches cleaning metal with an acid, where the acid is a 4% acetic acid solution (Example 3). It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to use a 4% acetic acid solution to clean the metal layer of Sakai and Chan, with the expectation of providing the desired cleaning, since it is shown by Burnett that such an acetic acid solution is a typical acid used for the cleaning of metals.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 4, 10-11, and 15 are allowed.

Conclusion

7. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

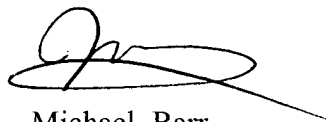

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
